SOCIAL REVELATIONS.

Some Personals and News of the Doings of Oregon People.

Mrs. Judge Wolverton of Salem, is in the city the guest of Dr. Maston.—Albany Democrat.

Misses Bertha and Vesta Mason were down from Albany to attend Pinafore entertainment.

Mrs. Olive S. England and Mrs. Florence E. Cartwright, are at the Portland Woman's congress.

R. D. Scott, Miss Anna Scott and Miss J. Hinkle, formed a party for a day's visit to Portland yesterday.

Dr. I. D. Driver, state senator-elect from Lane county, is in the city visiting at the home of his son, I. D. Driver, Jr.

CONDUCTORS DAY.

Favorable reports are coming in regarding a big crowd for the conductors picnic next Sunday. The Eugene brass band has been added to the attractions, and the very best of music will be provided. The bicycle races are coming on in good shape, but the bull race is declared off. "Old Bill" Anderson had agreed to get up the latter but has notified the committee that it will not come off. Mr. Anderson says a bull involves too much work, and he objects to getting it up for Sunday. However, he will assist the committee all he can in getting up more harmless amusements, and he may be induced to take out his baby monkey, which would be a whole show in itself. The committee is making ample provisions for the comfort of the crowd, as well as for their entertainment. In the meantime the good people of Salem are making ample provision for feeding and caring for all that come. People will drive in and come on steamboats from a considerable distance. It will probably be the largest crowd ever in Salem.

STAYTON.

Mrs. David Wyatt and son, Herold, of Lyons, were Stayton visitors Monday.

Mr. B. P. Taylor and wife drove up to Stayton Friday, on business.

Mrs. Baisley returned from a two week's visit in Lyons Monday.

Mr. Henry Keen made a trip to the Capital city Friday morning returning in the evening.

Misses Edith and Pearl Alderson, of Portland, were visitors in town last week.

Prof. Richardson, of Sublimity, will move his family to Stayton this week.

Children's day was observed at both the Christian and Methodist church last Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Dunivan has been quite ill for the past week but is on a fair road to recovery.

Mr. Huges, of San Francisco, Cal., has been a guest at the home of Mr. Lee Brown for the past week.

The young people of the Christian church gave a supper for the benefit of the church Friday, which was a great success.

Mr. Henry Brewer and Claud Darby left for Idaho Thursday morning, where they intend to take up land.

The Woodmen lodge, of Stayton, will give a picnic Wednesday, June 10, at this place. Music by the Turner band and a good time in general is expected. The Silverton camp will join in the celebration and help swell the crowd. There is no doubt but what this will be the event of the season.

THE SOLDIER'S HOME.

Adjutant Flynn Discharged and Comes to Salem.

J. M. Flynn, adjutant of the Oregon soldier's home, has been relieved by W. R. Marquis, a son-in-law of J. T. Mulkey, who is an inmate of the home. He was presented with a gold-headed cane by the inmates of the home.

His family did not live at the home and he was general utility man, did hospital service, and at times running the home.

Mr. Flynn laid some facts before the Governor, but filed no specific charges. He does not admire Mrs. Byars as matron. Mrs. Byars is a lady well known in Salem for her many sterling qualities and as an energetic manager. Mr. Flynn is an old soldier himself and seems to have been a popular man with the inmates, who all signed a testimonial and he also received a testimonial from the Commander Mr. Byars.

STAYTON.

Mrs. David Wyatt and son, Herold, of Lyons, were Stayton visitors Monday.

Mr. B. P. Taylor and wife drove up to Stayton Friday, on business.

Mrs. Baisley returned from a two week's visit in Lyons Monday.

Mr. Henry Keen made a trip to the Capital city Friday morning returning in the evening.

Misses Edith and Pearl Alderson, of Portland, were visitors in town last week.

Prof. Richardson, of Sublimity, will move his family to Stayton this week.

The young people of the Christian church gave a supper for the benefit of the church Friday, which was a great success.

Mr. Henry Brewer and Claud Darby left for Idaho Thursday morning, where they intend to take up land.

The Woodmen lodge, of Stayton, will give a picnic Wednesday, June 10, at this place. Music by the Turner band and a good time in general is expected. The Silverton camp will join in the celebration and help swell the crowd. There is no doubt but what this will be the event of the season.

FROM ENGER.

While W. T. Ransden and wife were gone to Stayton on Tuesday, June 2, there was a tramp, or some one else, who broke into his house and this is what he or they took: One pair of Sunday pants and suspenders, a lady's pen-knife and button hook combined, with a white handle, went to the cupboard, took eight biscuits, ten small cakes, broke into the children's bank for ten copper cents, went into the milk house and took a ham of bacon, a big butcher knife and one pie, and then went into the spare bedroom and took a pillowslip off of one of the pillows, we suppose to carry his plunder in. So farmers must watch their cupboards as well as their banks.

Two years ago on the 27th of this month his house was robbed of about $75 worth of goods. So they want to be careful hereafter when thinking he is gone away he will be there and it might not be good for them.

FROM ANIDEM.

The Quartzville mine still running a 20 stamp mill full blast, day and night, working about 80 men, and ore increasing in quality as well as quantity. Supt. Smith went out to Albany yesterday and General Manager Lawler is expected in now daily. Pay day is near at hand, and snow is a thing of the past in here, two pack-trains make regular trips. Snow about 5 feet on the summit. Mr. Frank Reed is looked for tomorrow. His arrival means a stir at the Albany Mining & Milling Co.'s works, which is now being put in order by Mr. Herb Ames with a small force of men.

DIED.

MATTHEWS.—At the farm home, near Whiteaker, on May 27, 1896, of heart trouble, John M. Matthews, aged 57. Mr. Matthews was an old resident in Oregon, having resided on his farm, near Whiteaker for twenty years. Mr. Matthews was a good husband and father, and was loved by all who knew him. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of the community in which they live.

J. M. Brown vs. B. Phelps, appeal from justice of the peace, Silverton district; continued by consent.

ONE INDICTMENT

was returned by the grand jury today—Oliver Whipple for larceny in a dwelling. He was arraigned and by his attorney waived time and pleads guilty.

THE DOCKET.

In the case of state vs. Chas. Nelson, jury failed to agree and was discharged. John Slough vs. Iver Larsen, action for money, trial to jury—a potatoe case. Carson and Fleming and Shaw, Hunt, and McCulloch, attorneys.

MRS. PARRISH WINS.

In suit of guardian of Grace Pierce et al vs. Mrs. J. L. Parrish, as executrix, verdict for defendant was rendered by Judge Hubbard.

Notice to Git.

SALEM, June 4, 1896.

You are hereby notified to immediately quit and deliver possession to the owners thereof—the store room now occupied by you as the assignee of the estate of Fred A. Legg, insolvent.

Respectfully,

LIBBIE A. PATTON.

CHEMAWA.

Thos. W. Potter paid a business visit to Silverton Tuesday.

Seven new scholars have arrived at the school during the past week. The total attendance at present is 270.

Rev. L. F. Jones, superintendent of the Presbyterian mission at Juneau, Alaska, visited the school Tuesday. He was accompanied by his wife and a new student.

Alpheus Dodge returned from a four month's visit to California Friday.

Thirteen milch cows were sold at public sale Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Julius Silverstein, of California, is at present visiting his wife who is very ill.

A large number of boys visited Salem Saturday.

The new sewer is almost completed. When it is finished it will add greatly to the sanitary condition of the school.

Prof. Heritage of Salem, will favor the school with one of his excellent musical programs Thursday evening. We will be glad to see many of our friends in from the country.
